SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

I am happy to greet you and to prepare this statement for your 1960-1961 Annual.

Graduation from high school marks only a beginning in the training so essential for satisfied living and working toward loftier plateaus of excellence.

If we want to live a life full of satisfactions for ourselves and for our loved ones, friends, and neighbors, we shall strive for excellence in all our work. Our dreams will be inspirations, our goals will be majestic ideals, and our day-to-day deeds will be havens of contentment.

To travel upward to such plateaus has ever been the longing of great souls. Their feats have given us the refining fires out of which have grown human skills, understandings, and compassions.

May I humbly suggest that we strive to become worthy members of such honored bands.

W. F. Lawson, Jr.
Superintendent

Best of Luck

THE PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Each of you must play a part on the stage of life. The part you play will fill your life with memories of experiences which will be as fleeting as your school days have been. As you play your part, you develop a reputation for yourself, which is not fleeting. Instead your reputation reflects your ideals and your interests in your fellow man throughout all the years of your life.

It is my sincere hope that each of you will have a bright and shiny reputation reflecting a true devotion for all that is good, clean, and pure.

P. J. Atkinson, Jr.

Best wishes for a long and happy life. If you can do anything for your fellow man, do your best.
P.J.A.

SENIORS

The Class of '61

T'was fall of fifty-six, not fifty-eight,
When from each separate hole and hidden grate,
As plebes we all came swarming struck with fear,
And entered through the gates of halls so dear.
We were outclassed by fifty-seven's crew,
Though when we roamed the halls the Seniors flew.
Pity to the youngest class we spare,
For we recall the signs we had to wear.
Five years our class has played its many parts,
Sharing the burdens within the teachers' hearts.
We've stuck together like oysters on a rock;
If N. H. S. forgets us -- what a shock!
As now we say farewell with hidden tears,
We step into the world with hopes and fears.

The Class of '62

The Junior Class of N.H.S. has made
A reputation that will not soon fade.
They've worked on through the past three years of school
And set a good example as a rule.
But Juniors will be Juniors, it is true;
Who crams for French exams, ah, parlez-vous?
In sports they're making records every day;
These boys are big, know how to run and play.
As nearing graduation, they can see
Just one more year, and then they will be free!
With this and other thoughts in mind, they dream
Sometimes of jobs and often next year's team!
But wake up, kids, and blink those stars away;
Mr. Kane can wait another day!

The Class of '63

The members of the class of '63
Are young and gay and often fancy free.
Today we like to dance and talk of dates.
As teens, we're joined by having the same traits.
While at Northampton High we spend our youth;
We'll try to hold to honesty and truth.
Through hours, and tests, exams, we sit and think.
Sometimes at sight of grades our hearts will sink.
But never are our efforts all in vain.
Our minds and bodies we must try to train
To fit ourselves for jobs in future life,
To overcome the troubles and the strife.
At N. H. S. we'll try to do our best
To take our place along with all the rest
Who sang our Alma Mater with voices clear.
With hope in our hearts, the future we'll not fear.

9th GRADE

The Class of '64

At N. H. S. this year there is a group

One of the best, they make a lively troop.

They have survived one year and now they think;

"We're sitting up on top; we're in the pink!"

Although they have three more long years to go,

They set to work, and spirits are not low.

They look back on the day when they were "kids",

When they could make the teachers "flip their lids".

Because a year has given them some growth,

They have improved in grades and conduct both.

But still they find the time to make the noise;

It's bare in " 'tention hall" without these boys!

To keep their future looking ever bright,

We're sure this class will try with all its might.

8th GRADE

THE CLASS OF '65

This year at N. H. S. there is a class
Who marched into the rooms in huddled mass.
They ran; they jumped; they skipped in through the doors;
They yelled; they scuffed their feet upon the floors.
It seemed the end of them would never be;
Their faces were a never-ending sea!
They missed the bells, got lost, and stepped on toes;
The clock and locks became their greatest foes.
They tried and did their best to learn it all,
But running was so tempting in the hall!
New teachers were to them some good, some bad.
The prices of new books made "Daddies" mad.
They were in algebra and science green;
"For goodness sake, what does that old 'x' mean?"
To listen in assemblies was a bore;
From gym they learn how muscles can be sore!
But now the start is made, the hard part gone;
They walk upon walks, not on the lawn!
We wonder why they aren't so very wild;
Their behavior now is really rather mild.
It could be that they're blooming out like flowers,
But more than likely it's because of "hours"!

The greatest accomplishment by this year's baby Jackets was the near victory over Virginia Beach. Virginia Beach had held their own with Group 1 competition and defeated the Deep Creek J. V.'s.

The J. V. did well this year winning 9 and losing only 3 for a fine record of .750.

1960 BASEBALL TEAM

Left to Right: Bottom Row - Coach Young, Jim Burton, Lee Carpenter, Bruce Soderstrom, Eddie Sayers, Vernon Bradford, Page Ashby, Bobby Dunton, Phil Custis; Middle Row - David Doughty, Kenny Arnold, Roy Mills, Larry Underhill, Donnie Ewell, C. B. Belote, Duke Matthews, Donnie Ashby. Top Row - Louis Spry, Claude Downing, Charles Lumley, Charles Brown, Al Hann, Bill Doty, Frank Culver, and Hugh Carbin. Absent when picture was taken: Bill Hill and Potter Henderson.

The 1960 Jackets opened the season with six new faces in the starting lineup. These were missing from the '59 team because of graduation or ineligibility.

The Jackets were blessed with a one-two punch on the mound, as right-hander Billy Hill and left-hander David Doughty led the team to another winning season. The Yellow Jackets walked off with the Eastern Shore Championship with an impressive 7 and 1 record. Overall, the Jackets won 9 while losing 4; two games ended with a tie; and another was called in the 4th because of rain, the Jackets leading 4 to 0.

The best game of the season probably was the scoreless tie game with Crisfield, Maryland, called at the end of 10th inning because of darkness. Both teams played terrific defensive ball and the winning run was called out at the plate on three different occasions. Co-captain junior Page Ashby, led the team in hitting with a sizzling .395, although one sophomore and two freshmen were close behind.

The most encouraging note this year is the fact that there were no seniors on the starting team at the conclusion of the season, so 1961 should bring another championship contender to NHS.

He lowered the mark to 20.5 in this event. Dix also set a new school record in the low and high hurdles. He holds the school record in the pole vault; he scored 25 points in a dual meet in 1960, which also is a school record. He is captain of the 1961 team.

Dicky-boo,

I'm writing upside down so you'll remember me. Never forget all the rare times we have had. How about Prom night and the black flower. And the way Tommy was bitching about it. And the wild party in your garage. That was a real blast. Remember that morning and the bridge game. Boy, you were hard to wake up. That party at the Park's was really right, wasn't it. I can't think of anything else to say so I'll stop. Best wishes. Please come see Carole and me next year. Maybe we can double date some this summer. Or play cards. You and Peggy and whoever I have a date with. See you this summer.

Love always
Jay

P. S. Never forget all those study hall discussions And the night of the V. P. I. Dance. Boy, was that a night to remember. It's a good thing I knew how to drive. Poor Herm! He was shot. C. K. so were others. Skip it And remember all the times we sat up until the wee small hours drinking coffee and talking. And the night that you came to see Janie and me. Boy! Make it t— —e. You almost did.

Dear "Hon!"

The time has come when we must part and go our separate ways. Take good care of Pop and don't get into trouble! Remember the time we went to Wilmington? I shall always remember the times we have had together. Boy, were they ever fun! Be the same as you are (crazy, nuts, stupid, and wonderful all; my friend). Take care of yourself and don't get into trouble. Your pal and friend;

Judy Babbit.

Dick,
Good luck on the future. We have had a time in English class since you left. Remember if you ever get time we'll be glad to hear from you.
Good luck and keep your head up.
Sincerely,
Richard Tilney
(DICK)

Dear Dick,

I could write a book on all the things we've done together, but it seems your annual is a little cramped for space. I guess it was really Peggy who started our friendship. I really thank her for that because it as a friendship that I have really enjoyed more than any other I have ever had. I believe I have had more really good times with you than with anyone else I have ever dated. The talks we have had could fill a book. Most of them seemed to be centered around one thing. Still we had some very lovely discussions on other things. I remember the nights after the Y.A.C.S. meeting when we would sit out in my front yard and smoke and talk for hours on end. It seems I never did get my homework done on Sunday night. I just can't imagine why. Then there were the dates we used to have at the Lux. I'm very proud of you that you kept a level-head on those nights. It's a good thing you didn't because I doubt I could have brought myself home as I didn't have my license and still don't, but never fear, I will get it soon. When you asked me to the Prom on January 8th after taking Ellen home (I bet you didn't know I remembered) I was thrilled beyond words, because I had been to the Prom for three years and never had a good time. I knew we'd have fun with you through. It wasn't wrong either for I've never had more fun in my life. Even when I stepped on the egg at Carole's. I guess Carole's mother didn't think it funny though. Joy & Tommy were a "scream" with their little squabbles about how big Joy's arched was and how the black paint kept coming off Tommy's boutonniere on his brother's tux. We finally made it to the Prom. But (excuse the pun ink, I just ran dry in my other pen) we sure visited and had our pictures taken before it.

The Prom was a "blast" and I think you and I must keep each other good luck in that you were King and I was Maid of Honor. Your party was a real blast although I was rather sleepy when they had all finally left. I can see you stretched out on the living room rug next with me on the couch and Jay & Tommy fussing over honeymoon bridge. The only time I have really been mad with you was when I tried to wake you up so Tommy could take us to Betty's & Peggy's and you told me to "go to hell" or "dry up" or something like that. My nerves were pretty well shot by the time and your saying that didn't help me just right and I was pretty mad, but I soon gained my senses when I saw you had a pretty bad head and don't deny it. That night when we went out I'm afraid I wasn't much of a date for I could hardly talk and was so sleepy I couldn't even hold my head up for over 5 minutes. You kept calling me a drunk when I wasn't, but Buddy H. seemed to get a big kick out of it. I'll always remember all the record sessions and your dungarees and your messy room.
Dick, you really ought to learn to put your clothes away. I don't know how much good our talks did, but you seem to have gotten what you wanted. Take good care of it.
Dick, you're one of the smartest or should I say the smartest ha. I know. I hope to always have your friendship for you'll always have mine. Just remember that I'll always have a welcome ear when you need me to talk to. I'll always cherish our friendship as

(Reserved)

Really, in all the years I've known you, I've never known you so well as I have this year. I am very glad we are friends. (Mush) But really, you are one of the people I think of as my best friends. I hope the future holds much happiness for you. Take care of Bonge. As else she'll take care of you. Just kidding of course.

Love again

Jay

Dear Dick:

It would take a page for me to express my feelings for your help and kindness through this year. You would be sunk it it weren't for me. Right? We both owe each other a lot.

If you ever make it to California, drop me a postcard. We've all done a lot of crazy things during these past years. A lot of them I'd like to forget. Do you remember that night after we came back from Salisbury. Wow!

I've enjoyed dating you this past year. I'll never forget the V. P. I dance, and the New Year's Eve dance. They were really a blast. That New Year's Eve started a lot for me. I'll explain sometime.

May you attain all that life holds for you. You have a very bright future, Dick, and I'm sure you will succeed in all that you do. Take care next year and come to see Jay and I. We will do the same for you that we will do for Billy. Fair?

Hope to see a lot of you, Peggy and your boat this summer. Thanks for asking Charles and I to go with you.

Love,

Carole

Dear "Mav",

We've had some neat times these past years, haven't we? Remember the day after Dance Party? Remember when Julian broke the car window out. I'm glad to say it wasn't too serious ~~anything we made up for it at~~ ~~your house after words~~. Remember the Party in your garage? What a blast! Too bad we didn't stay longer.

Never forget all the good times Practicing for the Senior Play.

Do you remember the Band camp days? Remember "Joan"? He was nice, but, oh brother. Remember how we used to sleep through theory class? And the park benches at night.

Well, so much for the past. May your future contain as much happiness as your present and past. Love ya

Suzanne
